PREFACE

The Resolution: Partiology 101EH is a comprehensive survival guide for all residents of Carleton University and contains a deluge of memories, and evidence best forgotten. We will examine the various stages of The Party; living quarters, companions, and accompanying events, not excluding deviances.

In preparing this first edition of Partiology 101EH, we have benefitted from the suggestions and experiences of colleagues, students and friends, and we wish to express our gratitude to all of them.

2. RESEARCH: PARTIOLOGISTS AT WORK:

BALDACHIN WEEKEND

"OHMIGOD, IT'S SNOWING!"

But our dedicated Partilologists, realizing the importance of the task at hand, forged on despite the weather, 24-hr lock-up and party passes. Cleverly disguised in native warpaint, they watched the Golden Gaels defeat the Ravens 32-0. Undaunted, the valiant Partilologists continued their research in the Bree's Inn. Their conclusion: With Panda dead, will it be PANDACHIN next year?

3. SEARCH FOR IDENTITY: HALLOWEEN WEEKEND

5. THE PROCESS OF PARTIOLOGY

Partyology: the process of subjecting oneself to the absolute maximum tuneage, consuming beverage in excess and dancing into the wee hours of tomorrow. Rez Favorites: The Brees Hour-Before-I-Start-To-Study Party, the Market-Crawl, Olivers Midweek Bashes, The Fenn Pubs and the Hull All-Nighter.

The Brees Hour Party: A myth, but one can always attempt the impossible.

The Crawl: Exploring the 'Market'. Record Partying here on Grey Cup Wknd.

Ollies: Tons of people, pick-ups, & dance music. Always around the corner.

Fenn Pubs: Usually Funn; loud, hot and crowded. Easy to stagger home from.

Hull: Party 'till the break of day.

SHINERAMA '88

Julia is 12 years old.
She just reached middle age.

The 25th anniversary of Shinerama was a great success. Carleton University, sponsored by GM, Labatts, Pepsi, CHEY, and Energy 1200, placed third in Canada, as we raised $32 481, exceeding our $30 000 goal. Over 500 residence students participated, kicking off at Parliament Hill, and spreading out as far as Hull, Kanata, and Nepean. 2nd Lanark raised over $800, the most in Rez.

One in every 20 Canadians carries the gene which usually affects children. Cystic Fibrosis causes serious complications in the respiratory system and digestive tracts, and eventually leads to death. As yet there is no test to detect carriers, but research continues in an effort to find a cure. Every September, university students across the country shine shoes to raise money for the Canadian Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. Thankyou to all participants.

"PANDA" '88

Last year, approximately 20 people were injured, 2 O.C. students seriously, when a railing collapsed during the game. As a result "Panda '88" was held on Thanksgiving weekend, and saw only 2000 spectators.

After the disaster at Panda '87, the number of Panda tickets to be sold was restricted to 9000, only 2000 of which were sold this year, and a usual security staff of 30 was bumped to over 100. Both Carleton and Ottawa U. have put forth a proposal to have the Panda Game moved to the first time the two teams play against each other, rather than the second. At the time of press we are still awaiting the verdict as to whether or not the stadium will be available to us. In any case, Panda will be moved from Thanksgiving weekend in hopes of reviving some once legendary student "Party-apaction".

Hundred of Residence students formed a massive, rowdy parade up Colonel By Drive on their way to Panda. It was no held this year.

Last year's crowd was estimated at 18 000 people.

GREY CUP WEEK

Grey Cup Week started with none other than a football game, with 3rd Glen and 3rd Gren coming out victorious. The pace then slowed considerably with Federal election coverage in the Bree's, only to start up again with the Second Annual Slave Auction. More than $1200 was raised for the Children's Aid Society which was a surprising increase from the $500 total of last year. Floor Reps and RRRRA executive made up the bulk of the approximately 25 slaves. Julie Kinnear of 4th Glen won the hearts of 1st Ren who bid and paid the incredible sum of $115.10. The rest of the week wrapped up with Newfoundland comic singers Lambert and James, followed by Paul Henry, and finally a video bash in the Fenn.

REZ WEEK 1989

Rez Week 1989 was a working week for our partiologists. It began with the Res Formal at the Radisson Hotel, where approximately 300 researchers dressed in their fanciest clothes and partied in style until the wee hours of the morning. The following evening was a much more casual affair, although certainly no less successful, with Endless Summer and a wild Pail Party in the Fenn Lounge. Casino Night, a variation of partiology, also did well, as participants raised several hundred dollars for Empathy House.

One of the biggest events of the week was the Annual Tunnel Painting. The top three works of art are by 12th Glen, 2nd Lanark, and 2nd Renfrew. In this year's Airband Competition, 3rd Glen took 1st place, followed by 4th Lanark and 1st Renfrew.

Partiologists were provided with some great comic entertainment on the following evening, with Marc Labelle (here we were introduced to a most distinguished researcher, "The BIG Burp"), and mentalist Mike Mandel. The next night brought the Fireman's Ball, hosted by 2nd Gren and 9th Glen, and "The White", a Led Zeppelin coverband, finished the week. After some deliberation, our partiologists have concluded that Rez Week '89 was a perfect example of partiology at its height!

PART TWO: THE STRUCTURE:

OF INTERACTION

1. RESIDENCE AND RESIDENTS

First, the habitat of this species; residence. Five simple buildings in Aug, Carleton's residences become unique as residents make themselves at home. The species line their nests with posters, kettles, teddy bears, bedding, noise, alarm clocks, road signs. The unifying factor of the species is habitat. The Arts Rezi: works in bursts. The Science Rezi: located in labs, and at 4 a.m. in study lounges. The Floor Rep: 'official' who organizes RRRR 'fun' in Rez. The Res Fellow: in charge of keeping the 'fun' in hand. Senior Res: surrogate parents who understand Res. unlike parents in general.

SENIOR RESIDENTS

RENFREW

John, Gwen
On a hot date: Kayla

We're the life support systems for a little three year old named Kayla. This, as you can imagine, is a full time position; but in our spare time we help look after the 170 students of Renfrew House.

Oh Yes, we sometimes have 'real' jobs. Gwen occasionally runs the late night news at CBC. And John has been known to teach university courses in film and english classes at high school. We try not to overdo this since we adhere to the philosophical principle that "the only thing worse than unemployment is employment."

Instead we try to devote ourselves to education - the kind that will make you learned, a hit at cocktail parties and totally unemployable.

In fact, this is our goal: to be Senior Residents for the rest of our lives. No jobs, a free apartment and free "food" at the cafeteria. God, life is great.

Gwen Walmsley and John Ramlochand

We moved to the Senior Residents position in Lanark House from Calgary. Nancy and David are enrolled as graduate students in Public Administration and Sociology, respectively. David is a teaching assistant in sociology, while Nancy is primarily involved with residence life.

Prior to August 1988, we were employed with the Calgary Police Service. Nancy was a social worker who handled calls for assistance of a psycho-social nature from police constables who encountered these situation during their duties. David worked as a crime analyst in homicide, robbery and sex crime investigation areas.

Duncan is an active two year old who can often be seen in the tunnels exchanging pleasantries with the maintenance people as they pass by in their motorized carts. He is also often found supervising the placement of cafeteria trays on the conveyer belt. His favorite evening pastime is showing the 2nd and 3rd Lanark residents how to play ping pong.

We, including Ralph, our dog, have all enjoyed our first year as Senior Residents, and the change in lifestyle. We are inspired by the many bright young minds we have encountered in Lanark House and are looking forward to returning next year.

RUSSELL

Michelle, Cymbria, Arthur, David

Shortly into September, Dave and I looked at each other and said . . . "Since September we have approximately 180 more concerns than we had before . . . Do we really need this?" Yes, we do! Dave, a sculptor and inventor, myself, Michelle, an illustrator, and our two children, Cymbria (6), and Arthur (2), thus far really enjoy being here! The closest we can come to describing the situation is being invited into a large family. Our position is to provide residence with enhancing programs, to listen, help, and meet any of the challenges or situations that may arise. And, as in a large family, these can cover an infinite number of areas, so the involvements are always interesting.

Cymbria and Arthur enjoy the open houses when they get a chance to know the residents better. Cymbria says she helps by answering doors and phones. Arthur said when asked, that he "likes de girls" and "likes dese guys". We look forward to the rest of our involvement here at Russell House, Carleton University.

GRENVILLE

When we were asked to write a bit about ourselves and what it means to be Senior Residents we didn't know where to start. How could a few short words express the pleasures and pains of this job?! There's the obvious of course - it's much more than just a job - it's a way of life, since we live where we work. It's fulfilling and frustrating at the same time. It's been a big eye-opener, an incredible lot of fun and three of the most stimulating, rewarding years we've ever had, not only for ourselves but also, for our children who have been welcomed so openly. Senior Residents are here for only a three year term and this is our final year. We will leave here with the same mixed feelings that a lot of students have when they move "O.C." - a sense of anticipation for the changes ahead and yet, at the same time, the sure knowledge that residence has given us much and we are going to miss it immensely.

LOWER GLENGARRY

It was with a sense of anticipation that we began our first year as Senior Residents in Lower Glengarry. Long before the students arrived, we planned out our theme poster for the year - 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, and 6th. What A Tremendous Combination - Living in Lower Glengarry.

Meeting you, the students has been both enjoyable and invigorating. In looking back over the year a number of memories stand as being prominent in our minds: the team of wonderful Res Fellows with whom we had the pleasure to work; Nachos, Nachos and more Nachos; talks to midnight and beyond; John M. strumming out a tune over our heads at 4:13am on a holiday weekend; The incredible un-'cap'-able energy which you students exhibited in everything you did; and the special friendships we have made which will not soon be forgotten.

For those of you who will move on, we wish you all the best, both in your academic careers and in your lives. For those who will be back in September . . . We'll see you next year.

Sharon York and Chris Lyon

UPPER GLENGARRY

Peter and Cheryl live in Glengarry's penthouse. What an exotic environment 11th is: grad students, foreign students, the thin air, and of course the Upper Glen's Senior, Res's.

Inside Peter and Cheryl's place there's a wild, jungle animal named Nougat. She thinks she rules the roost - she does, and one may stumble over a few car parts - Peter's still restoring his 1957 TR3. Do all those antiques come from housing? And do those law books have to be bought to get through law school? Is the 10th floor cooking up Kraft dinner? And can we watch Knots Landing on your tv? Oh Lisa, don't put icing on a hot cake! Meanwhile, the Upper Glen Times is being produced on the dining room table, and Woody's losing more money playing that unwinnable chess game. Cheryl's just back from a full day (and night) at her law firm. Still time to cook a quick snack of crepes for Gayleen. No fire alarms this year - what a treat? Peter's off to teach class now, books and papers everywhere. What a tunnel rat. He'll go out once a day to run (in sleet, ice, snow), but after that, it's the tunnels. Just time to pop in to hear Allie's massive stereo, or stand astounded at Dave's oatmeal collection (or play Step-on-the-Bug), to find all's well. What a great house, and artists on every floor!!

It all started in September when the men of First Ren (as we like to say) arrived at Disneyland and had their boarding passes validated. The cast of characters, all unique in their own special way except with one strong desire that was felt by every man in the group. The desire to drink almost lethal portions of booze. The need to play music at a level painful to the normal human ear. Most importantly, these gentlemen felt the pull toward girls. The need to breed! Here on First Ren we display the prime example of good genetics.

"GO BIG OR GO HOME!" We did nothing half heartedly. Aperitifs were enjoyed every afternoon frosh week, or any day the sun shines out on our patio where passers by could gaze upon our social superiority and only dream of being a member of such a quality social milieu.

Many happy times were had since then with many memorable events.

- The brutal kidnapping of Rodney Reindeer.
- Wags fingers
- Fults jogging and eating with silverware just for chicks.
- Steve getting ready for that big frosh banquet with all that free beer.
- Horny's mixer antics.
- Pete S. shopping spree (no more bell bottoms)
- Steve's face after two drinks of any booze
- Kevin on the phone with his mom
- First Ren Baseball Champions
- Late night on the canal
- Gallileo's
- The entertainment lounge
- Horny's quality time on First Ren
- Mushrooms
- Hoop talk
- Another successful Airband
- Bud and his afternoon nap
- Moser's massage service (hot back oil supplied)
- Collin snapped on snapps
- Dave's sarcasm
- Singers floating fish (grimace)
- Rez Week - The week Pete S. became a cool guy
- Huck's chick juggling
- Shannon's Christmas gifts (coffee, wood, etc.)
- J.D.'s hatred for P.S.'s foul mouth
- Anything horny said or did

We could go on for ever but it is time to go. So from us young SKIDS remember, "Are we here to study or to entertain and be entertained?" We figured that one out. Can you Charlie?

Hugs and kisses xx oo
First Ren

4TH RENFREW

Fourth Renfrew, this year of 88/89, now sporting the active attitude of "Let U.B.U.", is a great bunch of gals if you take the time. Unfortunately, many of them could not be found on any given night as they seemed to prefer the nightlife in Hull as opposed to campus. Of course this fixation with Hull was due to the fact that 4th Ren boasts the largest per capita under-aged population in residence. But somehow we seemed to beat the odds and ended up coming out on top (no sexual innuendos . . . honest!) During frosh week, our active participation in many events made our floor top on the list for 5:30 a.m. visits by 140 residence males (all in one morning). But, of course, some of these visitors were still here from the night before.

As was obvious, we ended up as major hostesses on the mixer scene - honourable mention goes to 7th Glen and their T.V. Lounge push-ups. Events that 4th Ren included in their busy schedule were a fantastic floor dinner, airbands with our crew of "Blue Zoners", and lovely Sheila, our belly-flopper and kiss-off queen (how's the H2O bed holding up, Pete?). But throughout the year the excitement on 4th Ren never ended. With our floor being the proud home of the first female manager of Fenn, we also unwillingly adopted an unnamed R.R.R.A. President (we love you, Derek!).

In case you hadn't noticed, 4th Ren plays home for many strange and wonderful characters. We like the men, everything from Sara's Chippendale obsession to Jan's high school encounter (McMaster did they say?), and of course, all the Res BOYS in-between. But we can't forget the assorted Res happenings that led to various memories on 4th Ren:

- "Holy *!$$% + &* phone bill!!"
- "I know who your secret santa is!" (nasally)
- "It's all fun and games until someone doesn't get their B.A." (Leslie doing the Res Fellow thing)
- "TEE HEE HEE" (Rita on wine)

No one will forget Peninah's politics, Roma and her underwear obsession, Lisa R . . . the living, breathing, female Otis, our great "friends" on 5th, and we couldn't leave out our newest addition - Trish . . . strong showing in the final lap, hon! And to all those wonderful 4th Renners that have gone unmentioned, there are obscenity laws that prohibit printing of certain material!

And as a final note, to all you other ressites out there, Fourth Ren would like to say - All the best, but,

"EAT MY SNATCH"

LANARK HOUSE

1ST LANARK

And God said, "Let there be 1st Lanark" and there was - and it was good!

A lot of memories were made on 1st Lanark this year. From the Floor Rep crawling down the hall to floor crawls, many good times were had by all. The people were all strangely twisted and will be remembered forever.

Paul "The Godfather" - often participates in otherworldly experiments and loves carrots. Eug "Where am I" - explores a different plain of existence. Sheila "I've gone home for the weekend" - thanks for making us all feel a little safer as pedestrians. Heather "Mrs. Poole" - sucked face at the floor dinner and lived to sing about it. Helene "Don't F--- with me" - will one day arrest Paul and Eug. Julie "The Invisible woman" - was only here to pick up her mail. Scott "Could I be any friendlier" - maybe the happiest person alive - Honorary Keener. Gerry "The Social Conscience" - too much soup kills your tastebuds, eh Gerry? Karl "Bono" - likes to swim in the canal at 2 a.m. Matt "I can make my hair into a helmet" - closest living thing to an exotic dancer/ gameshow host to be found. Stuart "The Jew" - only thing he likes more than dressing up as a woman is undressing in front of them. Mark "Cowboy Boots" - has very interesting (or stimulating) showers in his room. Trisha "Twitch" - has problems deciding which of her many suitors to choose from. Jill "Where are my friends" - her natural habitat is Oliver's on Thursday nights. Suzette "The Giggler" - her laugh can be recognized far and wide. Janice "The Dreamer" - can often be found watching Days. Sheena "Mark you stepped on my foot" - can dance anyone under the table. Paula "The Charmer" - broke a million hearts during frosh week. Charmaine "The Enforcer" - misses her Toronto party spots. Liz "The new girl" - glad to have her aboard. Isabelle "I'm waiting for John" - is 1/2 of the world's most perfect couple. Andra "The Lustmuffin" - Hey Andra, why don't you go to the Bree's for a change? Cris "Mr. Sensitive" - let it all hang out at the bellyflop contest. Craig "Where are my crutches" - will one day be a bouncer in the market. Brian "Bird" - his shoes could be used to sail young children. Terry "T.J." - the world's best closet partier. Kathleen "Hitler" - the least subtle person in the world - Hi Katie from me - You and your dog. Stacey "I got mail" - where is Petawawa anyway? Heather R. "The Witch" - has very good feline (ie. Cat) friends.

And thanks to all our off the floor friends who helped us have so much fun this year.

- See Ya

2ND LANARK

Second Lanark reigned supreme this year. During frosh-week, the gang collected over $800, more than any other floor. Second also came on top again in the scavenger hunt. Nobody can forget the incredible tug-of-war at the canal where we finished, coincidentally, second. This year has been full of all sorts of events and things: the ping pong table, Andrea window crashing, late night trips to the hospital, hockey, volleyball. Saga food, and all sorts of illegal things that should remain unpublished (in order to protect the innocent).

What follows is off the record:

Marianne - Oh my god: Totally cool.

Michele - Mario, I want your body.

Pete - I love you so much, if you were water I'd drink you up, pee you into the ocean and swim forever.

Jimmi - Kill it! Kill it! But first I want to study its habits!

Preety - I'm not going to throw up!

Patty - Lisa, are you sleeping in Bert's room again?

Lisa - Patty, I promise I'll be back in 5 minutes!

Kevin - Who him? He's a pole smoker.

Anthony - Quit pickin' your nuts Taylor!

Barb - Fine people, fine food - I truly enjoy this place.

Steve K. - Excess within control.

Chris W. - Hey, you honey, you baby doll!

Dave J. - Caulis de Tabernac!

Andrew - They're all fu**ing idiots!

Catherine - Men, who needs them?

Uzma - Are you talking about whachamacallit?

Todd T. - See how well she functions with three ***** in her mouth.

Dave P. - Hey Vick, are you an a**hole?

Vicki - Keep it down! I'm studying!

Chris F. - True love is something to be cherished.

Maureen - A woman without a man is like a fish without a bicycle.

Jenn K. - At the village level, the markets were held weekly.

Brad - Screw this, I'm going to bed!

Lori - Hey man!

Paula - Let's take a nap.

Jenn L. - Isn't that special?

Sal - Suck my left ***!

Mark - Sal you homo.

Thomas - So there you go!

Rob - Holy Fu** man!

Breenan - Is that wrong?

Prem - Women are nifty.

Kenny S. Hi guys!

Nicole - Crash and Burn.

Bert - Never trust a woman!

Bryan - What are ya? Mental?

Frank - Way too fu**ed!

Tony - Schnootz

Steve M. - Cute and innocent.

Andrea P. - Kiss my a**!

Craig - What's up?

My Mission: Sum up eight months of Res life with 48 other people in only one word. Impossible? Probably, but I tried anyways and I have the scars to prove it. With all the dinners, events, personalities and good times we had, the best I could do was come up with a potential list, so here it is: Party, Blast, An Event, Chaos, Messy, Funny, Gruesome, Creepy, Amusing, Festive, Roguish, Sportive, Hellish, Rompish, Ghoulish, Driving, Thriving, Surviving, Alarming, Appalling, Revolting, Frightful, Erotic, Firm, Wanton (and I ain't talkin' 'bout the soup), Voluptuous, Seedy, Altered, Carna, Gooley, Slippery, Hell-raisin'-good-times (counts as one word), Grinding, Rigorous, Unforgiving, Bass, Boss, Bitchin' Jack, Ruthless, Loud (and I mean "Wake-up-the-Dead-Loud"), Thundering, Vociferous, Scary, Woebegone, Lovely, Hard-n-Fast, Jaunty, Lickable, Genial, Genital, High, Low, Chic, Floating, Impure, Evil, Awesome, Mysterious, Swaray, Hammered, Wasted, Slugged, Ill-becoming, I'll-be-coming, Languid, X-rated, Impulsive, Ill-omened, Inane, Vacant, Full, Cruel, Tight, Loose, Unquenchable, Virginal, Pure, Bawdy, Erect, Floor-O'-Debauchery, Foul, Libidinous (get out the Websters!), Sultry, Smokin', Friction, Sinfull, Sinless, Taboo, Fiery, Heavenly, Orgasmic, Draining, Pumped, Girdled, Pseudo, Kissable, Flirtatious and, most importantly, FRIENDS.

4TH LANARK

I knew there was something strange about the floor when people started moving in one early September morning it was the strangest mixture of students from all over Canada, studying everything from journalism to engineering to plain old arts. I would be lying if I said I didn't have some serious doubts about the year at first. But the ghost of FOURTH LANARK present soon changed all that. Our first encounter with the spirit came in shining shoes all over Ottawa. Our turnout was the best in res and we placed third in money raised. Our mysterious friend stayed with us all through frosh week and helped to make it a week few of us will forget. In first term our scary friend decided it was time for some hyjinx which resulted in some genuinely strange occurrences including THE BAT, THE BIRD, THE FLOOD, and some truly strange things being left on various bathroom floors. No one really knows why the ghost decided to abuse us, but mere mortals should never question higher beings anyway. The ghost had a friend along at the beginning of the year, and he must have been the spirit of frosh relationships, because old fourth at the beginning of the year had an unprecedented nine, count'em nine couples. This soon ended except for one couple - I guess anyone can learn to like Metallica. The spirit then chose to possess Greg who decided to ignite an entire can of WD-40 in order to have an impromptu mixer with the rest of the building. It was around this time that the spirit had a change of heart and gave us a fabulous Grey Cup weekend and a fantastic Bree's party to boot. The spirit was still here in January making for a fine Res Week. He inspired Jo to come up with a great AIR-BORNE tunnel painting and brought the whole floor together in a fabulous K-Tel airband. It is unfortunate that the spirit was not powerful enough to break the curse put on us three years ago however, and we ended up second in the AB competition for the third year straight. Just before I wrote this the spirit singled me out as an outlet for his pent up anger and chose to pick me up and throw me through our main door window. Although no one was hurt (except my pride) I decided enough was enough and called the Reverend Ron to exorcise the now sadistic violent ghost. The ghost now gone, I have time to relax and just scribble down some point form ramblings as they come to mind: Don't, don't you want me? . . . Security? . . . I love hockey! - eh Bunny? . . . I am not a slut!! - Directed at the West End of the hall . . . Cockey Frosh puke number? . . . Stars Wars - Chubaca . . . Nachewy . . . Chewy!!! . . . Begging for heat in the T.V. Lounge . . . Begging for this crazy year to never end!!! . . . The number four. All in all a fantastic year up here on top, I would like to thank everyone who helped out and I apologize for anyone or anything left out. LIVE LOVE LAUGH

RUSSELL HOUSE

1ST RUSSELL

Tim C. (F.R.), Owen O., Randy J., Shawn M., Mark M., Shaun A., Mike, John, Tom, Nilan, Jamie, Tom, Dale, Pete, Barkley, Gerry, Mark, Russell, Ravi, Eion SITTING: Rocky, Brian (R.F.)

- |          |  |
|----------|--|
| John     | - He holds the high score in space invaders (with his head).   |
| Shaun A. | - This aerospace geek astounded us by not being able to play all recognized sports.                              |
| Nilan    | - Another A-G from Yankee Land who didn't take long to get corrupted.  |
| Jeff V.  | - Last year's B.T.T.H. Award gets this year's smokiest room award.   |
| Tom R.   | - Obnoxious? Yes, but we wouldn't have it any other way.   |
| Tim C.   | - What can you say about 1st Russell's Party Rodent? Weaseldick.   |
| Owen     | - Does he hold a special place in his heart for those buxom lasses on his wall?                                  |
| Dale     | - Who would expect the guy has the mind of Jack the Ripper?  |
| Rob      | - He's the busy, involved guy, isn't he?   |
| Sparky   | - He used to be a fun guy, but now he's gone. Oh well, his girlfriend is just as fun!                            |
| Jerry    | - Is he a puppy, or is he a man?   |
| Tom      | - The Invisible Man - what can we say?   |
| Eion     | - Ay Mon. Why aren't we watchin' sports, mon?  |
| Mike     | - 2 windows, 1 fight, 3 000 000 noise violations . . . why is he still here?                                     |
| Carlo    | - He lives with Mike . . . there must be something wrong with him.   |
| Mark     | - This is number 3 A-G. Is he really a hippie?   |
| Russell  | - This is number 4 A-G. Better known as the Orange Crush Kid.  |
| Rocco    | - What a guy! It took him three days to catalogue Ottawa's strip joints.   |
| Jamie    | - We think he works for the MOSSAD.  |
| Ravi     | - Mr. Innocence. Yah, Right!   |
| Shaun    | - Obnoxious, Irish, lucky with women. Why us?  |
| Randy    | - The only guy we know with his own pet skulls.  |
| Pete     | - Naive? No. He's just Mr. Laquered Fruit.   |
| Brian    | - A Res. Fellow who has a computer.  |
| Brent    | - Yeah, I had a keg. What are ya going to do, throw me out of Rez? Go ahead, 'cos now I work for the government. |
| Mike     | - Does he really live on the floor? (Or is he just an Architect?)  |

2ND RUSSELL

If you haven't yet met us, I'm sure you've heard of us! Officially we're the Second Russell Reindeers, but unofficially we're "Animal House"! It may be said that we drink too much, but if you were to ask any of us, we would say we drink "just enough"! We have managed to fill our floor with twice as much stuff as we brought from home, though we like to use the term "acquire". From the first time my frosh arrived, I knew I had a wild floor. From 4 a.m. fountain dips to jumping into the canal after a sporting game of mud football, I knew these guys would do just about anything to have a good time, however, some of us crossed the path of housing, and we subsequently decorated our rooms with 14 day warnings and fines. (I'm sure one of the reasons we weren't kicked out was because housing was making so much money from us!). It also looked in the beginning that we would have a good sports floor, but faced with the choice between sports and a case of beer, we usually chose the latter, and consequently played for fun and not to win.

The thing that sticks out most in my mind are the comments and sayings that were heard on Second Russell this year.

Here are a few:

Darren - Life's ruff, sh*t happens, Second Russell lives on forever . . . HOYSHEL?

Face - I don't remember so it didn't happen. Hey ya moolie . . . Shacktame?

Big Jim - If it ain't bolted down it's ours, sheer hell, don't worry be happy.

Sebs - Genesis 19:5-6 "In the beginning, God created beer, but then he realized there was too much beer, so he created Second Russell!"

Andrew - If you don't have one, steal one - if you can't remember it, you didn't do it, and if you can't see it, you can't hit it!

Rick & Fritz - A reindeer is always horny!!!

I thought that being a returning Res Fellow I had seen it all. Then I am placed on Second Russell. I think that I was placed here so as to have a challenging year. Although the guys seem crazy you just have to get to know them. I'd like to thank the floor for all the housing memos and the trips to see housing. But thanks for everything else, such as home plate and the bus stop woman. All other things ought not to be mentioned here. Let's just say "I didn't see this and I do not want to know how it happened."

Thanks for a great year,
Fritz & Rick

Ding, Ding, Ding . . . OOWATA YEAR it was on 3rd Russell. Although our ranking in sports has dropped, it seems academically, we haven't fared well either. So where has all our energy been applied?

While Victor and Dave seemed studious with their computer they got their big marks on "softporn adventure". Our budding troubadours Duncan, Bud, and Bob spent most of their time in the recording studios, while it seems that Pat, Greg, and Mike L. had trouble seeing their books through the blue haze - incense, right guys? Speaking of haze, after a brief mix-up our real Res Fellow was found face down in the Brees "right babe"? Of course Mark P. and Mike T. made sure that the "beat box" was heard on 3rd. Our pseudo Res Fellow Shane was busy on the phone and Kevin W. knew nothing about it. Steve C. truly was a Boy from Brazil while Brett was just a Boy with a Board. Brian F., Bill M., Rob L., and Keith (Flag Man) slugged 17 out on the line in the 3rd Russell East/West Game. If intramurals were full contact, these boys would have cleaned house. Boy Scout Bob trooped over hill and dale while our Floor Rep Chris found a "guiding light" in Kanata that was legal and NOT a bimbo . . . sorta. Hey Lov, pump it! Love, Arnold. Francois and Edward were busy making Christmas friends on 3rd Gren. Speaking of 3rd Gren, Brad finally had his cake and ate it too, Paul had his ups and downs while helping Rob (Speedy) redecorate the stairwell - what's an I.T.B., Paul? Oh yeah, Jim, what's a 30-day? Pablo (the artist) did still-lifes of our pet rock Murray.

Splice was shocked this year to find he didn't have to do the cable, which worked well, no thanks to Brent. Brent's roommate Mike K. showed us all how to have a stable relationship. Craig (I like girls in plaster) Hutton put personal injury aside. Mark W. showed us all how to chug a beer. Rick did a lot of chugging to get over his nagging, gnawing, agonizing feeling of GUILT! (Belleville and Trenton are pretty close . . .). Rich (the groper) kept busy streamlining the bathroom while keeping track of his harem. Once again Stevie Ray was a paragon of virtue with several bottles of Reisling. Trevor was a jock who spent his time dodging punches . . . Whoops! They could have been coming from Edwin the Eliminator while John "Robocop" Mills tried to keep the peace. Todd R., Dan T., and Trevor T. perfected the art of camouflage - perhaps they were trying to hide from Disco's comeback in Dan and Dave's room. Jeff C. tried to combat it with Heavy Metal, although Glenn the Baron kept the combat to a minimum this year. Steve McHugh showed us that physicists do party . . . Tylenol anyone? And Dave, are you still here? Is that 6 or 7 years? More than most of us could take! Good Luck next year at M.I.T.! Finally, to Ungerrr!! (nice plugs Jeff . . .) Thanks to all the guys for making 3rd Russell a great place to live and proving that 51 egos mean never a dull moment!

4TH RUSSELL

A TALE OF FIRST GRENVILLE

Once upon a year in res there lived thirty beautiful women on First Grenville. It all started early in September when a few frosh arrived and started unpacking, thinking this would be their new quiet home. However, to their unexpected naive minds they were awoken at daybreak for several days straight. Needless to say, their floor rep didn't sleep at all during frosh week. These girls managed to have lots of good clean fun during frosh week . . . right girls?! Hence the name Party Bitches from Hell (P.B.F.H.). They were well liked by First Renfrew, or so the story is told.

The next big event in their lives was the Floor Dinner. This event didn't last all night but these girls didn't stop their fun. It was an overall very successful dinner ending at Oliver's dancing until one in the morning.

After Christmas we were all welcomed back by Res Week. The best enjoyed event was Tunnel Paintings. All the girls managed to get covered in paint and to this day are still trying to get it out.

Thus the history of First Grenville is uncovered. Everyone is having a wonderful year and we hope it continues.

2ND GRENVILLE

Sophia "I think I've killed a few too many people for you to argue with me!"
 Kelly-Lori "Laid back girls only shave their legs they think they're going to get it."
 Grace "Council minutes, journalism F's, glue, nice boys . . . No thanks, I'm cutting back."
 Sandra 'Mom' "Suck my left one! I've breast fed 52 girls!!"
 Kelli-Kelli "They're sooo cute!" (sorry Rick)
 Steph Ross "Well, isn't that a co-ink-ee-dink!"
 Lindsay "Partying again, are we?!"
 Donna "Can I get you a Contact-C?"
 Kel "Yes, K.C. is coming up this weekend!!"
 Lou "No really . . . he's not scoring -- we're just friends!"
 Connie "I'm not plump. I'm FLUFFY!!!"

You live in a far, far away land and one day you decide to take a road trip with Ottawa as your destination. Your car comes to a halt at 3rd Gren. Opening a glass door you read the sign "SCENIC ROUTE". You see brick walls and a hash brown carpet. It could be a deception . . . BUT WAIT! Venture past each door and you'll discover a whole new world of people "gathered together" to share in the experience of residence living. Let me introduce you to the characters who have, like many before, parked their belongings on this beautiful path of existence. Norah did a clever job of wallpapering the elevator room. Next door is Dorothy, who is always on the phone, while Camilla anxiously awaits a call from her latest love. Jacquie and Nora Wissler's room has always been a busy tourist attraction and Tschipper who forgot to apply for Journalism, settled for Arts. Elaine and Pam are eager to join the work force with their briefcases but Sandy is content to go to aerobics. Down the path a bit further you'll meet Sherron who is usually out expanding her horizons and Marcella the dedicated campaigner for Ed. But you'll have to detour to 3rd Russell to find Heather and Anne. Andrea, whose middle initial must be "M" for money, lives with Susie, whose voice was recently discovered by the Hari Krishnas. Susan H. is usually on the go, but if your feet are tired you can surely rest a while in Sue G. and Jenn's Room. Their room is always open for Kim and Leigh to stop by for a smoke. Martha, no doubt, will be close by. Suzanne, Val, Dawn, and Trina share a suite with the washroom as the common meeting place. Across the road you'll notice Theresa and Petra are still mourning over their fish's death. Cathy and Barb usually listen to Meatloaf or Rod Stewart to drown out the crying. Now you've come to a road block. It's only a door but beware of Elaine's (I'm a Res Fellow) high kicks on the side. On this half of the journey you'll meet Kimberly whose artistic talent has left a mark on our road gear, Deb, midwife to 22 swordfish and Marie R., located in her room studying Greg. Anneka planted her roots later in the year, but Camille, Kelly and Kim were destined long ago to live next door to a Res Fellow. Erika came to Carleton to extend her care, Sarah and Lisa stayed for the Bree's, and Leslie and Priti somehow seem to miss fire alarms. Paise was once "woe is" until she turned down 3rd Gren, and if Helen is at the library, stop by Kath and Jill's room. Their door is always open. Our journey is coming to an end. Souvenirs may be purchased at Rosa's perfume shop, or you may join Patti, Kathryn and Maria for some pancakes. Third Gren has been a pleasant path of existence during 1988/89. Perhaps sometimes the road was bumpy, but when we all take our separate routes we'll look back and remember what a scenic drive it really was.

4TH GRENVILLE

Fourth Gren, we are here, we are now, and we are always ready to party. You've heard of Fourth Russell On Tap. Well chances are that at least half of Fourth Gren is with them. We may not always be at home, but if you need to find us check the Bree's, Oliver's, the Market, or if it's later, Hull. We're a bunch of fun-loving girls who have definitely got our priorities straight - Euchre, Shanghai, soap operas, food, booze, and men (not necessarily in that order). Oh yeah, I almost forgot - school! Sometimes we even make it to class. 4th Gren definitely has University life down to a science. Due to the large number of gerbalism (I mean journalism) students living here, we are guaranteed media coverage for the rest of our natural lives. Of course, we're not quite sure if that's good or bad. Then there's the invasion of the O.P.P. (Out of Province People), from B.C. to Newfoundland who are determined to show everyone that there is life outside Toronto. The success of the venture still remains to be seen. There's always someone up at all hours of the night, but living in the fire alarm capital of res makes it easy. To those who don't know us, we may seem a little quiet and reserved but that's only during daylight hours. Once quiet hours start, the floor comes to life. In a word, 4th Gren is UNIQUE, and we like it that way. Who wants to be just like everyone else? - certainly not us. We've had an amazing year, and who knows, residence may never be the same again! You only live once, so 4th Gren is definitely making sure they're having a great time.

3RD GLENGARRY

When you think of 3rd Glen (as we always do) you can't help but wonder how so many charming individuals can exist in one world alone. Control was the word on the floor this year. With 3 security boys and our Res. Fellow (who has been a bouncer at some of Ottawa's finer drinking establishments) what else can you be, but under control. Even with these hurdles to overcome, the GODS still carried on.

Women are always on the mind of a 3rd Glen god. Some of our more talented members had quite a year. John Wade, for example is writing a novel about his experiences called, "The Women of Wade" (thnx to all those who participated) and "Psycho" Platts finally got a date with that rez babe "Red Hott". The potential to "score women at will" award goes to "Stretch" who could have had 40 women but never got a gate. (Pull . . . Boom!!!) Congrats to "Devil Child" who overcame his lust for women and accepted his true love - flippin' burgers for Rotton Ronnie's.

At this time we would like to thank "Archie" Jones for these reminders on the "do's and don'ts" of drinking; as well to Steve "Skidore" (leader of the Lost Boys) for making those long nights even longer, although Andreas never could find enough time on those "long nights". (Which he soon found turning into days!!!) We certainly hope these guys find what they're looking for: 1) "Paisan" Felice - still searching for the lost "La Bamba Tapes". 2) "Relic" Shank - still vows to get a new boat and move back to the coast. 3) "Jason Voorhees" - "I want a woman who'll pamper me and treat me like my mommy would." 4) "Beerstore" and "Euchre" - we hope they find their houses and get the hell off our floor!!!

Now moving on to the Betty Ford Clinic are: 1) Bill "Tequila Sunrise" Mack. 2) Bob "You got one for me buddy?" Millar. 3) "BooRa" Jonesca (who should have been there 6 months ago).

Colm, Gord, Keeler and Gus would like to thank Brian and Mila for the free beers at the P.C. Headquarters.

Floor Motto: "Ah! . . . Just killing time."

P.S. Good luck to Robert John Wallace Gordon Forest and Kevin "Magnet" McGill in their future Endeavors. ("Killer Fry" too!!!)

P.P.S. And remember kids . . . stay "Gunned & Roasted". We are the GODS and will always be! Cheers!!!

4th GLEN: GOD'S GIFT TO RESIDENCE!

1988/89 will go down in history for the hottest chicks in res: 4th Glen! Frosh Week set our never tiring pace, with Jules and Sar leading the way. Our gorgeous outgoing personalities shone when winning the co-ed Baseball tournament with 4th Russell, placing a proud 2nd in the car rally and the famous "I Need A Man" Kiss Off, and 3rd in the surfboard competition. Anida with a 'd', our superfrosh, our awesome vets, and our OC buddies partied braless in Hull, at On Tap at the Laf and everywhere else! Not to mention that we could happily drink any other girls' floor under the table!!! Scary. To profile the head honchos of 4th; we come across our security-happy and extremely happenin' Res Fellow, Sara Inkman. Not to mention the Floor Rep extraordinaire, Jules Kin. Jules the cools who rules! $115.10 (fu* *in' right on slave).

"JUST SAY NO!" (yer all a buncha hypocrites!), "I HEAR YA SISTER!", "DEAL WITH IT!", "DO ME . . . NOW!", "LICK ME DRY AND CALL ME DUSTY!", "BRUTAL!!!"

Our star studded year was filled with 5 talented varsity basketball and volleyball players, SIMPLY IRRESISTIBLE air bands, our BOSS tunnel painting, kicking ass with Candy-O-Grams, ALL century clubbers making it, partying on Baldachin, the 4 KISS members, Bree's parties (x365), Mooner's 1st home, and incredibly amount of knitters and soap-a-holics. Grade? what are those? Pizza Pizza had an account with Laura, Funnelling and free beer is always popular, except for a couple too many mornings waking up hung over and an incredible number of guys in lust with us! It's rough. A typical walk down the hall runs you into our evergrowing YAK list, our knitters watching DAYS, suite 406 - the lived in look, overcrowded with day old beer and butts. Then you'd be cruising down groovin' to a little rap music, playing on Stacey's computer games, seeing Sarah's door saying Saga/ Goodnight/ At Class! (oops, Joke sar!) Through yelling floor announcements or new plans, you'd head bang a little then appreciate the bikini men and Rod Stewart blaring. Did I remember to mention the now 50 different perfumes and hairsprays wafting around? Oh my goodness, we've run into Marilyn's best friend . . . THE STUDY LOUNGE! Teresa's mind went a little out of control in Nov. and then you smell a lot of weird food cooking, a wall of Player's Light and MORE COIFFING BEAUTY QUEENS!@!@! Holy Memories.

It was a HELLUVA year. Thanks to everyone for making it so much fun. Anyone in res would be proud to say THEY lived on 4th Glen this year. Stay cool. Yes . . . we rule.

5TH GLENGARRY

A tradition of excellence is a hard curse to live with on 5th but we're getting used to it. We'll start at the beginning: Frosh Week. Not only did we win the tug-o-war and draft barrel races but we also won the kiss-off contest thanks to the magic of Simon. (Two years in a row for 5th, girls!) Here's a sample of what happened on 5th this year.

- Andy passes out in a downtown bar, loses his glasses and sets off the burglar alarm trying to come home.
- "WHERE IS THE WORD 'FRIEND' WRITTEN ON ME!!!", birth of the 5th Glen he-man woman haters club.
- "Kirchmayr, I'll drink you under the table . . . YAAAKK."
- What's 5th Glen's favorite month? Nick the Frosh say SEPTEMBER?!?!?
- Andy, when I told ya to go for the pylon record I was being SARCASTIC!" - course and pedestrians taken out.
- "You don't really want to get a 40 of TEQUILA for the three of us? Do you VAN? - "WELL YEAH" - "Go get a box of table salt, and a bag of lemons. Let's get hosed."
- WANKER WINS BIG with OUIJA predictions of Grey Cup.
- PLUTO YAKS AT CHARITY BALL - on the table that is, and his suit, and the floor.
- Raider the rat is born and so is a floor name.
- Hey! It's 4am, time for AC/DC - GET UP FROSH!!!
- "Look at the size of that BEAVER! It's HUGE!"
- Res. Formal shootout blowout by fifth.
- "Neil, it's 2am let's get loaded." - "I wanna F--- ERNIE WEEKS!" - PARKSIE does that crazy puke thing.
- WELCOME DODD! - VID KIDS - "ALL HAIL THE TERMINATOR!" - Kirk loses FAITH
- Boner Hockey with Boner Line.
- Dogger goes to classes . . . at Western!
- Bye PARK, we will (and do) miss you!
- Raider leaves us for a woman, what a RAT!

We also won MEN'S INTRAMURAL thanks to the great work of our sports whips (Pluto and Opie) and you can be sure the RAIDER name will live long and strong.

Through the fog of sleep, and the bitter furriness inside each person's mouth, the inhabitants of the FIDO hall in the Castle of Glengarry awaken. It's 2 p.m. and they've just missed the poison hours: SAGA. At the risk of being ill, they get out of their bunks and direct themselves to the one place where snot hangs like medals on the tile walls: The communals. Soon after, each bottled head gathers in the T.V. lounge where the tables await another meeting of cards, smokes, sunflowerseeds and BEER. These inhabitants are best known among the Res Commons as the Knights of the Euker table. Basically that's how each day began on the 6th Glengarry - but when night came, never was there a dull moment passed within the halls of FIDO. Who could forget the endless nights of sitting around. On Tap anyone? BEER, Nude Vador rides, 3rd Lanark mixers, Impromptu gatherings - "honest Janet, the party just happened", BEER, picnic tables - just who got it there!, floor jackets - ugh, Glengarry's 8:00 a.m. wake up call, late night in Suite 601, Frosh party Hats, BEER, I thought kegs were illegal! The Floor War - out of control, Brad make-up suits you, BEER, Censored pictures, Do me like a wet fish, Airband, Birthday Shooters, The Gods of Hockey, Pool Parties in Bathtubs, Days and finally BEER, and more BEER. Then there were the people who really made the floor. We'll start with Paulo the Dancin' Machine, Geoff - the hick from the Sault. Where do Sarah and Les differ the most? One excelled in gymnastics while the other failed, Elaine the Cabby Killer/ Wet Willier, Mag the Yank, Euker the Shot Gun Santa Slut King, Gary Gretzky, Paul & Mike the sounds of Silence, Marvin, Me & the Boys back home, Greg Suite 606's lawyer, A.J. the Brit, Mike Airborne, Melissa Scooby Snacks, Jen - you are beyond bitch, Tracy the vador puker, Anne the Slam Dancer, Batia the Gypsy with red shoes, Max, Are those loud ties, Brad and his infamous bed head, Dan - the Communals!, Steve Res cop, Paul - Mr. Conceded, Bill - Mr. Variety, Jeremy - the human garbage can, who could forget The Cat - Ken?, Angela Suite 601's Adoptee, Cecil - you are Abstentions, James & his Upper Canadian Lager, Cliff the Bong, Lorna the mom, Jason you're still spiderman, Hugh Mungous, Karen - Mrs. Humungious, Alison - Passed out in her white underwear, Karin Bieger - the one with the short hair, Craig - mealtime performances, Rich - Don't worry about it, Kate - Service Desk, Kellie Closet Gina, Alli tie dye, Issabella Mouse, Jennifer the Dirty dancer, Kate Smily, Heather & Days of her life, Ian Bitys, Screamer - 7th, Carsten - off with the robe, Brooke & Alice the Scholarly Athletes, Heather the Braless Wonder, Barb the Shroom head, Debbie the singer, Kelly Cookie and Heather Gabriel, Dan Dan the Res Fellow man, Robbie Dumped, and oh ya - Hey Alex - I HEAR YA!

What a long strange trip it's been. It's not entirely clear when things on eighth began to get weird, but it was sometime between the record beer run of 37 cases during Frosh Week and the consumption of said cases. The fact that several of us got busted for the alleged caps game (that sucked, eh Shelley?) did little to dampen the enthusiasm of the Boozehogs. We did however get a little wet when the "Hogs led the First Annual Apres Canoe Race Canal Dive." Our record in the Frosh week events was a little less successful but we did manage a unique sort of notoriety. Twenty-five people caught in the Death Vator for more than an hour has to count for something. We knew we'd be all right as long as we didn't talk and use up valuable oxygen, right Susan? It seems that there were two birthdays on the floor that night and somehow a number of eighth residents were infected by some hallucinogenic fungus. Yes it was black Wednesday on eighth after the Jeff Healy concert ended and we were forced to take the party home. The ensuing respect and consideration shown by party-goers to both residence security and our Res Fellow, (Allie who knows we love her) would have brought a tear to the eye of any blood and guts anarchist. A strange alteration of North American popular culture began to occur soon after. Unfortunately some of the never completely recovered and thought for some odd reason, right until the end of the year, that weekend started on Wednesday and went until, oh, about Tuesday noon. And, between filling in names on Commander's Yak list and looking for Angela's keys and trying to figure out what colour Shelley's hair was going to be, no one could really figure out whether John-John or Ian or Ian or John-John is going to be the new FC. This was of little concern to Smokin' Joe Pyne who made the decision to turn pro after the Toga Party. We knew it was all over when that last bastion of decorum and morality fell. It was a sad day when Alex pounded that twenty-sixer of Polar Ice and proceeded to regurgitate Roget's Thesaurus along with his Saturday Saga steak. It hasn't been resolved whether or not some of the members of eighth ever left the T.V. room after the mixer in hopes that eventually someone would bring more punch. There were many things that seemed a little, shall we say, Chris, odd and kind of nutty, on our floor. Exactly who lives in suite 828? It's kind of a moot point really, what with Catherine shocking the nation on election night by cutting in on Mila and dirty dancing with the P.M. at Tory Headquarters. How can Lumpy sleep for 72 consecutive hours and still want a nap after dinner? Will Enzo and Faye remarry? Tune in next year . . .

9TH GLENGARRY

HERE'S THE STORY
OF A LOVELY FLOOR REP
WHO WAS INITIATING SOME VERY VIRGIN FROSH
ALL OF THEM COULD MANY BEER HOLD,
LIKE THEIR ROBIN.
THE YOUNGEST ONE WOULD HURL.

HERE'S A STORY
OF A RES FELLOW NAMED DAVEY
WHO WAS BUSY CONTROLLING FROSH OF HIS OWN.
THEY WERE RIPE YOUNG MEN,
LIVING ALL TOGETHER.
NO THEY WERE NOT ALONE.

'TIL THE ONE DAY WHEN THE FLOOR REP MET THIS RES FELLOW
AND THEY KNEW THAT IT WAS MUCH MORE THAN A HUNCH.
THAT THIS GROUP MUST SOMEHOW FORM A FAMILY
THAT'S THE WAY THEY ALL BECAME THE BITCHIN' BUNCH.

*Dan and Lainie take it off at the surf off. *Car rally crew runs over Colin. *Skating at 4am. *Tour Ottawa on a Friday night Pub Crawl. *Mike and Roxanne entertain the gold dining room. *Good Morning Vietnam - get your butts out of bed Frosh. *Wipeout or leave your hat on in 906. *Why is the study room so crowded? Exams? No, Knots Landing on the tube! *Reunions at the Laf and On Tap. *Hallowe'ew Bash, Trick or punch anyone? *Sports - the men triumphed in soccer and volleyball, the females made a great fan club. *Andy mailed his keys from the Lockmaster. *If its controversial, we'll paint it. *The togetherness of century club as we all piled into suite 928 and then into their bathroom (or was it utility room Robin?) *Late nights in the pleasure dome. *Guitarzan & Jane strutt their stuff. *Can you sing "Little Green Frog" boys and girls? No, but I bet you can say 14 day! *Pictionary in 923. It's only a game girls! *The 'Don't tell Dave' Beach Party. Highlights included a wet T-Shirt & Chippendales contest.*

We may not look like the innocent Marsha, Jan and Cindy types or have the boy-next-door charm of Greg, Peter and Bobby, but we are a real bunch. WHEN WE'RE GOOD, WE'RE GOOD, BUT WHEN WE'RE BAD WE'RE BITCHIN!!!

Once upon a time, there was a floor much visited by men
And the title of this place was a well chosen TEN.
For the girls on this floor were unique and simply great,
And only good things happened here - it was a special fate.
Though it sometimes seemed like Facts of Life, with its own Mrs. Garret
The ladies all sang the praises of TEN, and would proudly wear it.
The first days of this tale found the girls wakened with rasp,
Thanks to Lori's famous voice - NO imitator could grasp!
Winning the Keg Race was a hint at more than one type of floor spirit -
These girls could have fun together, and also liked to BEER IT!
Oh, those nights in Oliver's, the Bree's - and Hull when they all had money,
With the stories to tell the next day, all of them screamingly funny!
As the year went on, the fun did too, and the noise just escalated,
So Gayleen stayed up late to scold them, her mean streak soon anticipated.
The shaving cream fights, the painting mess, water on each other poured,
Plus skating, dancing and rearranging rooms, how could they ever be bored?
The late night blues, indulging in pizza, or smoking up a storm,
Pictionary, euchre games, the music room gang, soap operas in full form.
As much as these events, and more had to do with TEN, and its short year of fun
When it comes to importance, the friendships made will top the list at number 1!!
Cause individuals make the floor - and this one's no exception,
Each girl brought something to the floor, and will leave with her own perception.
When looking back at the lists of girls and the face for every name,
67 individual stories will call out at once, not a one the same.
But even though the space that's given to babble on like this -
Ain't big enough for all those tales, there's one thing we can't miss . . .
It's the important fact that all of TEN has shared one golden year
And though we can never go back, the memories will always be clear.

11TH GLENGARRY

Okay, time to quell all those falsehoods labelling our floor as the morgue and its residence as corpses. Despite any rumors to the contrary, 11th Glengarry was one of the best floors (if not the best floor) in Res 88-89, balancing a perfect combination of school and social life. One of the things that gave life on 11th a unique flavor is the diversity in cultures and ideas.

And let us not forget our champs from 11th Glengarry - who took 1st place in the annual roadhockey tournament - way to go, we are proud of you. Just goes to show what a great bunch of jocks we really are.

Our Hallowe'en party, where everyone was decked out and which was well attended and full of good spirits, was one of the social highlights of the first term. It was followed by a Christmas party, black and white night and lots of impromptu get-togethers. Vera deserves a round of applause for her creative ideas in decorating for all these parties. Secret admirers: "I love you all."

Thanks to our many friends on other floors for being part of our small community up on the 11th floor, and for making our parties rock.

Very best wishes to everyone for good health and a very prosperous and rewarding career!

"Oh, but I'm so hungry! Please?"

R.R.R.A. EXECUTIVE 1988-1989

PRESIDENT

W. DEREK WHITE

As I look back on this year in Carleton U. Res, a flood of memories rush into my head. From all the Orientation Week fun to Bowser and Blue to the Res Formal to Tom Cochrane. I hope you had as much fun as you could handle, and hold this year as one of your fondest memories.

I wish to thank the people that made RRRR function this year. Without their long hours and dedication RRRR could not have operated. Your floor reps were superb. I'm happy to call them my friends.

I find it hard to believe that only a year ago I barely knew Bernie, Reuben, Jeff or Kristen. Today, I consider them my closest friends. Hetch Reu Reu, who calmly and competently handled RRRR's finances. Finkle slipped into programmer mode and brought in the best entertainment line up seen by any Ontario University this year. Bernie, I have grown to respect you. I owe you more than thanks for your support and I apologize for my faults. You were always there. Finally, I have seen Kristen refine and direct her energy and enthusiasm. I know you'll do a great job next year.

As I leave this place which I call home, I want to wish you all the best in all your future endeavors.

Your Friend,

W. Derek White
President, RRRR.

VICE-PRESIDENT

BERNIE ETZINGER

"Yes there are two paths you can go by, but in the long run, your stairway lies on the whispering wind"

Robert Plant/ Jimmy Page

Four years ago a bright and eager frosh walked through the doors of Second Russell and welcomed his future. Today, as I leave Carleton's residence community, I reflect on the times I had here.

They say that 90% of what one learns in university is outside of the classroom. That figure is suspiciously low. The friends, acquaintances, and social savoir faire that one acquires is invaluable in the ever competitive outside world. Whether or not one is involved in the residence community in one facet or the other, residence is truly a special experience.

My job this year as RRRR Vice-President has given me the opportunity to have a mental snapshot of life in Res. This year was a pivotal year, academically, and physically, with the announcement of a new residence.

Thank you to many, many people; people who have taught me about this job, about myself and that which happens around me. Good bye to Derek, Reuben, Jeff and Kristen; best of luck in the future.

Keep smilin' and follow the best path,

Bernard Etzinger

PART THREE: PERSPECTIVES

ON SOCIAL INTERACTION

1. THE SENSE OF COMMUNITY

Community: a group of people living under the same laws. The Rez species lives in such close quarters that they have to put up with each other. Noises after Quiet Hours result in 14-day warnings, and pressing SNOOZE 5 times a morning does not endear one to one's roomie. For relaxation, the species frequents the pool halls, the Brees Inn, and even class, or the Library.

While in some cultures home is a restful or peaceful place of refuge, this is not the case in Rez. The resident species is a unique community in the sense that peace very rarely exists here. Most of the time Rez is a rowdy, boisterous place, where one is always liable to find the very essence of Partiology.

2. FIELD EXPERIMENTS

Field Trip: A journey out of everyday surroundings for direct observation and investigation. The Residents enjoy these excursions. Often, they amuse themselves to the extent that they return for further investigation. The field trips that are taken vary from Parliament tours to the most bizarre Hull club. The great thing about studying Partiology, as you should know if you are reading this text, is the enjoyment of a close examination of the party. Off-Campus friends, Parliament Hill and the Market all offer a different type. Question Period is the rowdiest parliamentary kind, Hull tends to be a little wilder. Transportation must be considered. Buses are fine in off hours, but paying double fare is not in a student's budget since more important things exist to spend money on. Taxis are plaguing. Frosh often fall victim to the $14 tour-by-taxi - if they get a cab. The best thing about Partiology trips? No chaperons!

National Gallery

3. RESEARCH: PARTIOLOGISTS

AND PARTICIPATION

4. DEVIANCE

Deviant: one whose actions and beliefs differ considerably from the standards of the society. e.g. In Rez, a person who spends time in the library, or in studying, working, or doing laundry.

These activities are not taboo, but considered the last choices to escape boredom or avoid failure. At times the entire society is thrown into a deviant state which the natives call 22-hour quiet hours. Deviant behavior is revered, and unnatural silence becomes the norm.

Another deviant in this society is one who does laundry on schedule and only needs one washer. Variations of this deviant are the owners of a clean room and/or bathroom. Non-existent on all male floors.

5. PARTIOLOGY: IN ADVANCE

Party Preparation: varies greatly in length according to sex. Female: hours, and curling irons, hairspray, makeup. Male: 5 minutes or so, maybe a shower.

Attire: in Rez "we're one big happy wardrobe". Several rooms visited before the absolutely perfect outfit is achieved.

Depart: OC Transpo for thrifts. If cabbng it, wait inside. Arrival time is inversely proportional to how cold one is and how anxious one is to leave.

Campus Depart: allow for line-ups at the Brees Inn, and a century wait at Ollies. Don't forget $ and I.D.

AND AFTER THE FACT

Return: bribe cabbies. Taxis are rare and expensive. Buses stop running early, and are not for queasy stomachs.

Recovery: length varies in proportion to how much fun one had. Recoverees have been known to kill alarm clocks, early morning vacuumers, and parents who phone before lunch.

"Nah, they're my roommate's. You know I don't drink that stuff, Mom."

Acadia's most esteemed members.

The "Power Moon" Incident

"Dad, I SWEAR, I'm getting a job tomorrow."

So guys, what's for dinner tonight?

"Mmmm, yummy, Mommy!"

"Mine is THIS big."

It's so hard to find a quiet spot around here.

As I looked into her eyes, I knew the $3.00 that I had spent on wine would not go to waste.

"My shampoo? Vidal Sassoon, of course!"

BIBLIOGRAPHY

This text was put together by a small group of people, but indeed, most of the resident species has contributed in some way to this book. A large volume of research was done this year in various areas of partiology. Countless residents spent late nights working on the cause and effects of the party, studying advanced partiology, and becoming subjects of the photography in this text. We would especially like to thank these experts for their dedication to the advancement of the study of partiology: *Frosh-Week-no-quiet-hours rowdies, *Euchre players, *Brees Partiers the same morning they have a 9:00 exam, *Panda Hanging Bashers, *Shotskiers on the slopes, *Pail Partiers, *Grey Cup Weekenders, *Floor dinner daters, *Hosed Firemen, *Ollies' Wednesdays, *Charity Ballers, *Res Formallers, *Airbandits and *O.C. Guests.

They say a picture is worth a thousand words. Over the course of the last six months, we've taken more than 2500 shots. Around 20% of them made it into this book; hopefully you'll find a picture of yourself at least once.

Thanks to Louis, Stephanie, Richard and Dennis for their photographic help when I was in a crunch, and also to Brad for both photography and the cover design. To Robert Bell, a special extension of gratitude goes to the many hours spent assisting in the darkroom.

Janine, thank you for helping me keep my sanity by losing yours - yes, it did build character (I think).

For anyone I have forgotten and everyone in Res for being so cooperative, my thanks, (including Steve Chenier for those two last minute shots).

There are 128 pages in this book, enough for almost everyone in residence to appear in a candid photo at least once outside of the floor pictures. Unfortunately, this is a difficult goal to accomplish with one regular photographer (thanks especially to Grant - Photo/ Co-editor) and little response to repeated requests for your own personal candid. To those of you who did submit snapshots, thank you, and I hope you see some of them in these pages.

Thanks again to everyone mentioned here, and to anyone I may have temporarily forgotten,
